

RECOVERY FUNDS AT WORK IN OHIO

Wilson Statement on Education Funding from Recovery Act that Continues to Flow to Ohio

Upon learning that more than $1 billion in education funding is now available for Ohio under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, Congressman Charlie Wilson (OH-6) issued the following statement:

“This is great news for the residents of Ohio. This funding saves jobs and invests in our children’s education. These are crucial steps to promoting a long term economic recovery.”
